

BIOL1421: Anatomy & Physiology II

Credit Hours: 4

Clock Hours: 45/30/0

This is the second of two courses that covers the organization of the body and the anatomy and physiology of various body systems: cardiovascular, lymphatic, immune, digestive, respiratory, urinary, and reproductive. The major organs of studied systems and how they relate to the overall status of the body are discussed. Laboratory is three hours per week.

Prerequisites:

BIOL1411