

PHIL1310: Critical Thinking

Credit Hours: 3

Clock Hours: 45/0/0

Students will learn how to enhance and refine both their cognitive and affective performance. The course will analyze the role of the learner and the purpose of education. It will assist students in developing the systematic information processing, critical thinking, reading and study strategies needed for success as lifelong learners.

Prerequisites:

None